

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., May 22, 1894.

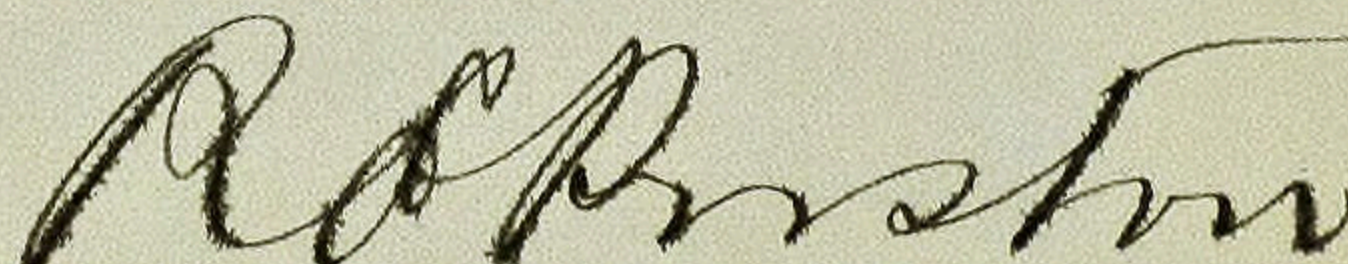

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

On the 19th instant, I notified the late Superintendent, Col. O. C. Bosbyshell, that it was necessary he should pay over the balance due from him on account of unpaid orders for minor coins without delay. I am in receipt of a communication from him stating that the matter shall have his immediate attention. If this balance is not paid over to you by the first day of June, I will thank you to notify this Bureau officially, when steps will be taken without any further delay to enforce payment.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.
